

National Association of Educational Office Professionals

1934-2009 75th Anniversary CALENDAR AD

In recognition of the 75th anniversary celebration of the National Association of Educational Office Professionals (NAEOP), the association will be publishing an 8 ½” by 11” thirteen month calendar with historical information, as well as birthdates and anniversaries of NAEOP members and their family members and friends. We believe this will be a calendar to be cherished by all NAEOP members.

This will be an excellent opportunity for businesses, associations, affiliates, schools, universities and individuals to show their support of the only professional association for educational office professionals by purchasing space for an advertisement in the calendar.

Information about NAEOP and the NAEOP Foundation, Inc. can be found at our website www.naeop.org. The calendar will be sold for the first time at the 75th Anniversary NAEOP Annual Conference and Institute in Bloomington (Minneapolis), Minnesota during the week of July 20-24, 2009.
