

Happy November everyone!

November is a time when we celebrate and give thanks. Reflecting on that for which we are grateful, is an important way for people to feel satisfaction with themselves rather than dissatisfaction with what they don't have. Thankfulness can enhance our moods, decrease stress and drastically improve our overall level of health and well-being. Some simple things to be grateful for are:

- * A roof over your head and a floor beneath your feet
- * Friends and family
- * Our furry friends
- * Good health and the air we breathe
- * Holiday foods and traditions
- * A time to relax and enjoy the beautiful things in life
- * NAEOP and NAREOP!!

Becky Shipley and Linda Rush are ready to sell you opportunity drawing tickets to support our scholarships fund. As previously reported, NAREOP would like to offer three scholarships next year but we can only do so if funds permit. A copy of the flyer for purchasing your tickets attached. I'd like to thank you in advance for supporting this worthwhile endeavor. But hurry! The deadline for purchasing your tickets is this Friday, November 11, 2022. Good luck!

Also attached is the scholarship application. Isn't it exciting to think your child, grandchild or great grandchild could be one of the recipients of our scholarships? It's an exciting time for them and I'd like to think that we were able to help with your family's continuing education.

When I mentioned I'm thankful for NAEOP and NAREOP, I mean I'm grateful for all I've learned through seminars, conferences and the people I've met through these fabulous organizations, with people being the key word. We wouldn't be the great organization we are without you!! Have you considered serving on the NAREOP Board? I'm having a great time as your President and enjoying all the wonderful people we serve. I invite you to join the Executive Board of NAREOP. I know your experience in the educational office, as well as your knowledge from conferences both state and national would be a tremendous asset to our success. If you are interested, please contact any of following Nominations Committee members: Becky Shipley, Charla Callahan, Susie Martinez, Brenda Blodgett, Rose Hill. They would be very excited to hear from you!

Wishing you and yours a very Happy Thanksgiving,

Sarah Tierce, CEOE
NAREOP President 2022-2023
